A Report on Celebrations of Communal Harmony Day on the occasion of Mahatma Gandhi Jayanti & Lal Bahadur Shatri Jayanti Conducted on 02-10-2021

Department of National Service Scheme (NSS) of Vasanttraodada Patil Institute of Management Studies & Research, Sangli has celebrated ‘Communal Harmony Day’ on the occasion of Mahatma Gandhi Jayanti & Lal Bahadur Shatri Jayanti in collaboration with IQAC on 02nd October 2021 from 10.30 am to 12.30pm on Role of Mahatma Gandhi in the freedom of our Nation and Importance and Significance of Social Non-Violence for every Citizen of India. The Online Quiz Competition was conducted for all the students of the institute on this occasion. Gandhi Jayanti is celebrated on 2nd October every year to commemorate the Birth Anniversary of the Father of the Nation Sri Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi.

Remembering Mahatma on his 152nd birth anniversary, worldwide celebrated as the “International Day of Non-violence”. The man who showed the world that Non-violence is an effective and lasting way of defeating injustice. He is a great inspiration of truly embodying the principles of tolerance and peace. In his words “You must be the change you wish to see in the world”.

About Lal Bahadur Shastri

Lal Bahadur Shastri was only 16 when Mahatma Gandhi called upon the countrymen to join the Non-Cooperation Movement. Lal Bahadur Shastri at once responded to the Mahatma Gandhi's call. Lal Bahadur Shastri was deeply influenced by of Mahatma Gandhi. "Hard work is equal to prayer," he had once said

During the 1965 India-Pak war, when the country faced food scarcity Lal Bahadur Shastri, who was the Prime Minister then, stopped drawing his salary. Lal Bahadur Shastri's slogan 'Jai Jawan, Jai Kisan' during the 1965 war boosted the morale of the soldiers as well as farmers amid food scarcity. Lal Bahadur Shastri promoted the White Revolution, a countrywide campaign to increase milk production. He supported the Amul milk co-operative at Anand in Gujarat and created the National Dairy Development Board. To boost India's food production, Lal Bahadur Shastri promoted the Green Revolution in India in 1965. His tenure as the Prime Minister was only for 19 months. He died in Tashkent on January 11, 1966. "True democracy or the swaraj of the masses can never come through untruthful and violent means, for the simple reason that the natural corollary to their use would be to remove all opposition through the suppression or extermination of the antagonist" - Lal Bahadur Shastri

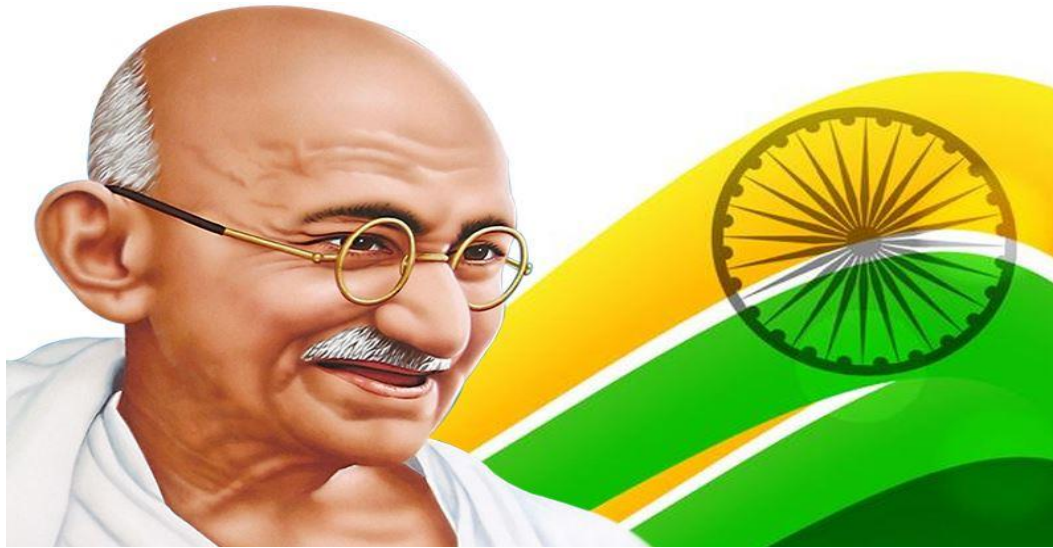

"There comes a time in the life of every nation when it stands at the crossroads of history and must choose which way to go." - Lal Bahadur Shastri
